HIGH POINTS:

WELCOMING THE STRANGER AS JESUS

The Churches United Motto is: Welcoming the Stranger as Jesus.

With this in mind, I would like to address the issue of donations to charities in general.

While Churches United is grateful for all donations that we receive that are useful to our guests, there are times when the donations are not of a quality that we would be willing to give to Jesus. Therefore, we ask you to ask yourself "Would I give this to Jesus?" Please do not burden our local charities with dirty clothes and partially used hygiene products.

HAHAW

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week is November 17th - 24th. Watch your email for more information. Volunteers are needed for the dinner on Nov. 19th.

*Till next month.

Churches United
FALL UPDATE MEETING
THURSDAY,
October 17, 2019
AT 10:30 AM
AT
MT. ZION CHURCH

PRESENTATIONS:

For churches, I usually do a 3-5 minute chat about our shared mission. I make myself available after the service to answer questions.

For groups or organizations, I can do a 10-15 minute presentation on the history and mission of Churches United followed by a brief Q&A period.

If your church, group, or organization would like to learn more about Churches United contact me at 218-444-1380 or email cunited@paulbunyan.net to set up a time and date for me to visit.

Thank you, Wanda
